

Large Space Structures Testing Branch (DCA)

oversight for large, dangerous, high-risk test facilities; quality oversight for high-rich/mission-critical sound test programs; financial management and oversight of a near full-cost recovery, market economy operation; technical oversight to assure safety and mission success; environmental compliance for a large Government reservation and unique test operations; security for Information Technology sensitive test programs, and maintenance of the Plum Brook Station infrastructure.

